

The Rev. Oscar Lester (O.L.) and Clara Brown Endowment Fund

Rev. O. L. and his wife Clara Brown had a deep commitment to Christian missions around the world. They served pastorates of the United Methodist Church of the Western North Carolina Conference from 1924 until 1962. Their lives of loving service and their kind, caring natures were an inspiration to their grandson, Henry B. Perry, III, Founder of Curamericas Global. They were a deep source of support to Henry's call as a child to medical missions.

The O. L. and Clara Brown Endowment Fund was established in 1996 by Dr. Henry B. Perry, III, his mother Lillie Brown Perry, and her sister (and Dr. Perry's aunt) Elizabeth Scoggins.

The total value of this fund as of 1/31/2022 is $94,193.
